FEATURED SPEAKERS

IRIS APFEL

A true American original, Iris Barrel Apfel is one of the most celebrated personalities in the worlds of fashion, textiles, and interior design. For over five decades, she has been lauded for her extraordinary style of dressing. Her singular look—a richly layered combination of colors, textures and patterns and a mix of high and low fashion—projects a bold graphic modernity, exuberance, fantasy, and humor.

PETER PENNOYER

An architect and author. He is principal of the eponymous thirty-member firm with a national practice in classical and traditional architecture. The firm's work combines an inventive spirit with an erudite grasp of architectural history and has been widely featured in many publications, including The New York Times, Architectural Digest, and House & Garden. With co-author Anne Walker, Pennoyer has written three books: The Architecture of Delano & Aldrich, The Architecture of Warren & Wetmore, and The Architecture of Grosvenor Atterbury.
