

2010 National History Day Winners

1st Place Junior Historical Paper: Elisheva Bas, Ramaz Middle School

The Dwight D. Eisenhower National System of Interstate and Defense Highways: The Road to Success?

2nd Place Senior Historical Paper: Leora Mincer, Ramaz School

No Right to Be Born: The Eugenics Movement of the Early 20th Century

11th Place Senior Individual Performance: Lily Shoretz, Ramaz School

The Blalock-Thomas-Taussig Shunt: The Innovation Opening the Field of Cardiac Surgery

2010 New York State Winners

Junior Historical Paper

1st Place - The Dwight D. Eisenhower National System of Interstate and Defense Highways: The Road to Success? Elisheva Bas, Ramaz Middle School

2nd Place - The Barcode: Initial Resistance, Ultimate Acceptance Margaret Thomann, Genesis at Xavarian

Junior Group Exhibit

3rd Place - Braille: The Key to Education for the Blind Avital Goldstein & Avigayil Karasick, Manhattan Day School

Junior Individual Performance

1st Place - The Innovation of Nuclear Power: For Bomb or Boon? Jack Cahn, Ramaz Middle School

2nd Place - Insulin Pump: Closer to a Cure Thomas Witkowski, Genesis at Xaverian

Junior Group Performance

2nd Place - John Roebling's Steel Wire Cable: Suspended in Time Mark Kindschuh & Harrison Jamin

Senior Historical Paper

1st Place - No Right to Be Born: The Eugenics Movement in Early Twentieth Century America Leora Mincer, Ramaz School

Senior Individual Exhibit

3rd Place - Frame by Frame: The Camera's Impact on Depicting the Reality of War Ellina Nektalova, High School of Economics and Finance

Senior Group Exhibit

2nd Place - Splitting of the Atom Chee Yung Kong, Sanya Pesic & Tanni Rahman, High School of Economics and Finance

Senior Individual Performance

1st - The Blalock-Thomas-Taussig Shunt: The Innovation Opening the Field of Cardiac Surgery Lily Shoretz, Ramaz School