

MAP

3 FLOOR

Restrooms

Stairs

The City Within: Brooklyn Photographs by Alex Webb & Rebecca Norris Webb

See the complex beauty of Brooklyn through the work of celebrated photographers Alex Webb and Rebecca Norris Webb.

Who We Are: Visualizing NYC by the Numbers

To mark the 2020 census, artists and designers demonstrate the power of numbers in helping us understand New York and New Yorkers.

Collecting New York's Stories: Stuyvesant to Sid Vicious

How can objects and images tell the dynamic and eclectic stories of New Yorkers? Find out through some of the Museum's recent acquisitions.

2 FLOOR

Stairs

Activist New York

Delve into the drama of social activism in New York City, past and present, with issues as diverse as immigration, civil rights, and sexual orientation.

City/Game: Basketball in New York

Experience the excitement, energy, and evolution of this quintessentially urban sport as played on asphalt and in glittering professional arenas.

1 FLOOR

Shops & Ticket Desk
10 a.m. – 6 p.m.

Stairs

For large print exhibition text, please ask at the Ticket Desk.

New York at Its Core

Port City, 1609–1898 tells the story of New York's remarkable evolution from an outpost for trade between the Dutch and Native people into the nation's largest, most densely populated, most diverse, and most influential city.

World City, 1898–2012 showcases the dizzying evolution of New York as it grew into a modern global metropolis and survived and reinvented itself during the course of the tumultuous 20th century.

G FLOOR

Restrooms

Accessible Entrance

Emergency Exit

Stairs

Timescapes

Watch New York City's history unfold in a half-hour film narrated by Stanley Tucci. Runs continuously throughout the day.

*Please wear a mask or face covering at all times.
Please maintain social distance.*

All visitors should exit the Museum on Ground Floor (G).