

SCAVENGER HUNT

Recommended for ages 3-8 with a grown up

Find all the tasty treats on this list and learn more about the five boroughs of New York City!

GINGER

The Great BREAD

NYC Borough Bake-off

Did you know?

New York City has five boroughs: The Bronx, Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens, and Staten Island.

1. Can you find an orange boat on a blue lake?

Check this out!

This orange boat is called the Staten Island Ferry, which people can ride between Staten Island and Manhattan.

2. Can you find two buildings with white stairs leading up to their front doors?

A pretty sweet borough...

These creations are inspired by the brownstones of Brooklyn. Did you know? Brooklyn is where the Tootsie Roll was invented!

3. Can you find three tall, skinny buildings near a park?

What do we call a very tall building?

This type of building is called a skyscraper because it's so tall it scrapes the sky! Manhattan is famous for having many skyscrapers.

Flip me over to keep going! →

4. Can you find a building with a red bicycle outside of it?

Hint

Look closely—the bicycle is small.

5. Can you find a candyland park that has two gingerbread trees and five gingerbread people?

Learn More

This creation was inspired by the Bronx, which is home to the largest park in New York City, Pelham Bay Park.

6. Can you find a long, gray subway car?

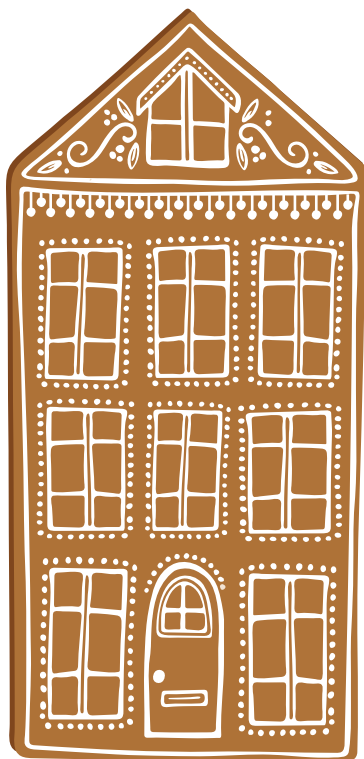

Did you know?

This is the 7 train, which runs in Queens.

7. Can you find three gray fire escapes?

Hint

You might need to walk all the way around to find them.

Answer Key

- | | |
|------------------------|------------|
| 1. Table 4 | 4. Table 5 |
| 2. Table 5 and Table 6 | 5. Table 7 |
| 3. Table 1 | 6. Table 3 |
| | 7. Table 2 |

Learn More

We've created a wide range of resources to support New York City's teachers, students, and families as we learn together. Find lesson plans, profiles of historical New Yorkers, art activities, and more at:

www.mcny.org/education