GUIDE

This Is New York
In honor of the Museum’s centennial, this full-floor exhibition explores the many ways that the city has inspired storytelling in film and television, song and poetry, literature, visual and performing arts, and fashion.

You Are Here is an immersive film, which draws on the rich archive of movies set in the city to create a dazzling montage of cinematic moments that comment on each other across time and space.

Scenes from the City features a treasure trove of behind-the-scenes stills of feature films being made in the New York, which have created a dynamic and ever-evolving portrait of the city.

Activist New York
Delve into the drama of social activism in New York City, past and present, with issues as diverse as immigration, civil rights, and sexual orientation.

City of Faith
Look under the surface of New York’s image as a secular city and discover the complex and often surprising relationships that connect religion to public space.

New York at Its Core
Port City, 1609–1898 tells the story of New York’s remarkable evolution from an outpost for trade between the Dutch and Native people into the nation’s largest, most densely populated, most diverse, and most influential city.

World City, 1898–2020 showcases the dizzying evolution of New York as it grew into a modern global metropolis and survived and reinvented itself during the course of the tumultuous 20th century.

New York Now: Home
The first in an ongoing series of triennial photography exhibitions that will engage themes and issues of the contemporary city
Closes August 20

Food in New York
Examine how food creates a powerful social network that binds New Yorkers to each other and with countless others across the globe.

Timescapes
Watch New York City’s history unfold in a half-hour film narrated by Stanley Tucci.

Showtimes:
10:20 a.m. 1:40 p.m.
11:00 a.m. 2:20 p.m.
11:40 a.m. 3:00 p.m.
12:20 p.m. 3:40 p.m.
1:00 p.m. 4:20 p.m.

Thursday Evenings:
5:00 p.m.
5:40 p.m.
6:20 p.m.
7:00 p.m.
7:40 p.m.
8:20 p.m.